

St George's Chapel

Can you find this special decorative window . It was designed as a gift to a Queen so she could pray alone whilst watching the services below.

Where has Beth hidden the fabulous sword belonging to Edward III? It's almost 2m long so cannot be hard to find? Be Careful Beth!

Thank you for helping me find the presents. Please keep it our secret so that King Charles doesn't find out. Have a fabulous Christmas!

A ROYAL CHRISTMAS

...with NO presents!

Hello. I'm Freddie, one of The King's footmen. I need your help!

Beth, one of The Royal dogs has run off with His Majesty's Christmas presents and scattered them around the Castle. Can you help me track them down before The King finds out?

Use the clues and tick each box when you find a present.

The Grand Staircase

As you walk up the wonderful staircase, can you find a musical instrument? It belonged to some soldiers a long time ago.

Beth and Bluebell were seeing playing here!

The Grand Vestibule

South African craftspeople made this basket using recycled telephone wires and gifted it to Queen Elizabeth II. Where has Beth hidden it?

The Waterloo Chamber

This very large gift was given to Queen Victoria. It is a huge carpet all the way from Agra in India. I do hope Beth is careful on this precious carpet

The Kings Bedchamber

Beth is NOT allowed on this bed! How pleased would a Queen, or even an Empress, be to get this as a gift for Christmas? Can you see the feathers on the top?

The Queen's Gallery

The King loves fruit at Christmas. What delicious fruit was gifted as part of this solid silver table?

Look out for the beautiful Christmas Trees in the next few rooms. Beth and Bluebell love them! But we have to keep them away!

The Grand Reception Room

A gift from a cousin in Russia. How on earth did they get it to Windsor? It looks really heavy. Where is that little doggie?

The Garter Throne Room

Queen Elizabeth II wanted a new comfortable throne chair to use for her coronation and other special events. Can you find it? Oh, get off there Beth!
