

Christmas Gift Guide Update – Celebration Hampers and Homeware

Royal Collection Trust is offering a plethora of treats from the Food Hall and Homeware to make Christmas celebrations extra special, with items such as luxury mince pies, Christmas crackers and a new selection box of premium craft beers all perfect to share.

An updated range of Hampers and Gift Bags feature new treats such as Lumps of Coal chocolate-coated honeycomb, and include a version specifically put together for Christmas Eve. They are made for gatherings, whether you are receiving guests or being hosted.

Products can be purchased online (www.royalcollectionshop.co.uk) or from Royal Collection Trust shops in Edinburgh, London, and Windsor. A selection of images can be downloaded here.

Note to Editors

Royal Collection Trust, a department of the Royal Household, is responsible for the care of the Royal Collection and manages the public opening of the official residences of The King. Income generated from admissions and from associated commercial activities contributes directly to The Royal Collection Trust, a registered charity. The aims of The Trust are the care and conservation of the Royal Collection, and the promotion of access and enjoyment through exhibitions, publications, loans and educational programmes.

The Royal Collection is among the largest and most important art collections in the world, and one of the last great European royal collections to remain intact. It comprises almost all aspects of the fine and decorative arts, and is spread among some 15 royal residences and former residences across the UK, most of which are regularly open to the public. The Royal Collection is held in trust by the Sovereign for his successors and the nation, and is not owned by The King as a private individual.
