The Coronation of Elizabeth II took place on 2 June 1953, at Westminster Abbey. The Queen wore a beautiful robe made from purple velvet and lined with silk. The robe was embroidered with wheat ears, and olive branches - symbols of peace and wealth - and the symbol of The Queen - the crowned cipher. This took 3,500 hours to complete!

Did you know? The robe weighed almost 7kg and was over 5m in length!
