Please note that some areas of the visitor route may not be available on certain occasions.
The Queen’s Gallery Ticket Desk:
Café at the Palace:
Café toilet entrance and toilet facilities:

Hand dryers are positioned underneath the mirrors of the toilets. These can be noisy and so paper towels are also available as an alternative option as well.
Café accessible toilet:
A warden will welcome you at the Palace entrance and direct you to where you can collect your multimedia guide for your visit. The displays within the Welcome Centre may change throughout the year.
Multimedia guide pick-up point:

To make the most of your visit, pick up one of the free multimedia guides at the start of your visit. We clean our multimedia guides and headphones twice before you use them – once before distribution, and again on return. You are welcome to use your own standard wired headphones if you prefer.

Our multimedia guides are available in: English, Gaelic, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Russian, Chinese, Brazilian, Portuguese and British Sign Language.
Visitor route to the Mews toilets:

Toilets and baby-care facilities are located in the Mews. We encourage you to use these facilities before starting your visit as there are no public toilet facilities available within the Palace. Capacities are being managed and an enhanced cleaning regime in operation.
