The Queen's Drawing Room
This room contains some of the greatest Tudor and Stuart paintings. Four portraits of famous monarchs are shown here.
Can you find them and find out who they are?

King's Bedchamber
These rooms were used by the flamboyant King Charles I, although he never slept in this beautiful bed. It was created for the visit of the Empress of France to see Queen Victoria. Can you find out her name?
Clue - This princess' sister is called Beatrice.

The Queen's Drawing Room
I have got two different names!
or

The State Apartments Quiz
Windsor Castle was a favourite home of Queen Elizabeth II and is the oldest and largest castle that people live in anywhere in the world.

Follow the trail to find out more and ask the Wardens should you need any help.
Be aware, not all rooms are included in this quiz and some may not come in the expected order!

Queen Mary's Dolls House
This famous Dolls' House, built for Queen Mary in 1924, was never intended as a child's plaything. Can you find a room full of books?
What do you think this room is called?  L_BR_ _Y
See if you can locate the cat.  Clue: look in the kitchen.
Is it… Sleeping?  Awake?

State Entrance & Grand Staircase
Which King, whose statue is on the half landing, was responsible in 1820 for redesigning the State Apartments?
George III  or  George IV

The Grand Vestibule
As you move around the Castle, don’t forget to look up! In this room there is a beautiful ceiling. Can you find -

A Crown  A Castle  A Blue Dragon
The Garter Throne Room

This throne chair is one of three used by Queen Elizabeth II at her Coronation in 1953. It displays The Queen’s Cypher (EIIR), which stands for Elizabeth II Regina. Regina is the Latin word for queen. On a king’s cypher, the ‘R’ stands for Rex, for king. See if you can find other cyphers belonging to Queen Elizabeth II or even King Charles III. (CIIIR) How many can you find?

The Waterloo Chamber

This chamber was completed to celebrate the Battle of Waterloo in 1815. The huge portrait on the opposite wall as you enter the room is of one of the commanders in that Battle - The Duke of Wellington. He gave his name to every day items we still use quite a lot on rainy days. Can you guess what they are? Look closely at the painting to see if you can find any clues.

The Lantern Lobby

Which king wore the fabulous armour displayed in this space? Clue - he has 6 wives!

St George’s Hall

The shields that decorate the ceiling show the coats of arms of the Knights of the Garter. In the middle of the room there are some blank ones. Can you guess why they are blank?

St George’s Guard Chamber

In this room you will find lots of armour, flags and busts (a bust is a sculpture of the head and shoulders of a person).

The Queen’s Gallery

In this room you will find lots of paintings by a famous Dutch artist. Can you find his name?

The Grand Reception Room

This room is used for large parties and events in the Castle. Look towards the window, and find a large green urn. This was too heavy to move when in 1992, a fire spread through the Castle. The urn was badly cracked on the outside due to heating and cooling too quickly. It had to be repaired like a jigsaw. Look closely and see how hard it must have been to put it back together.

How many pieces do you think there were?___

The Queen’s Guard Chamber

In this room you will find lots of armour, flags and busts (a bust is a sculpture of the head and shoulders of a person).

Look carefully for this one of Winston Churchill, who was Prime Minister during World War II. Can you find it?

Do you know who the UK Prime Minister is now?

The Queen’s Guard Chamber

In this room you will find lots of armour, flags and busts (a bust is a sculpture of the head and shoulders of a person).

Look carefully for this one of Winston Churchill, who was Prime Minister during World War II. Can you find it?

Do you know who the UK Prime Minister is now?

The Queen’s Gallery

In this room you will find lots of paintings by a famous Dutch artist. Can you find his name?

In the painting shown here, a young boy is trying to tell us how powerful he will be when he becomes king. How is he trying to show us this in the painting?