

HRH Princess Beatrice of York's wedding dress goes on display at Windsor Castle

Imagery is available to download from <https://mediaselect.pa.media/>

For further information or images, please contact the Royal Collection Trust Press Office, press@rct.uk, +44 (0)20 7839 1377.

See below for images of the official commemorative retail range to celebrate the wedding of HRH Princess Beatrice of York and Mr Edoardo Mapelli Mozzi.

Visitors to Windsor Castle can see HRH Princess Beatrice's wedding dress, first worn by Her Majesty The Queen in the 1960s, on display in the State Dining Room from Thursday, 24 September.

A Royal Collection Trust member of staff makes final adjustments to the special display of HRH Princess Beatrice's wedding dress at Windsor Castle

The Crimson Drawing Room

The Green Drawing Room

The dress is on display in the State Dining Room, one of the Semi-State Rooms, which open to the public each year between September and March and are among the most richly decorated interiors in the Castle.

Image credit: Royal Collection Trust / © All Rights Reserved

Press Office, Royal Collection Trust, York House, St James's Palace, London SW1A 1BQ

T. +44 (0)20 7839 1377, press@rct.uk, www.rct.uk

Official commemorative range to celebrate the wedding of HRH Princess Beatrice of York and Mr Edoardo Mapelli Mozzi

The official range of commemorative chinaware and souvenir items to celebrate the wedding of HRH Princess Beatrice of York and Mr Edoardo Mapelli Mozzi has gone on sale today, Wednesday, 23 September. The exclusive design shows the couple's initials surmounted by the coronet of Princess Beatrice, surrounded by a bouquet of pink roses, peonies, lemon blossom and thistles, secured with the white rose of York. The pink roses in the design reflect those that were included in Her Royal Highness's bridal bouquet, while the thistles symbolise the couple's love for Balmoral. The bee motif throughout the range represents Her Royal Highness's initial and how she is addressed by family and friends.

The official range includes a pillbox and tankard, each gilded with 22-carat gold and made in Stoke-on-Trent using traditional methods that have remained unchanged for more than 250 years. All profits from sales of the products go to The Royal Collection Trust, the registered charity responsible for the care and conservation of the Royal Collection, and the promotion of access and enjoyment through exhibitions, publications, loans and educational programmes.

The official commemorative range is available from Royal Collection Trust shops and online at www.rct.uk/shop.

Shortbread biscuits, £2.95

Strawberry truffles, £8.95

Tea towel, £9.95

Image credit: Royal Collection Trust / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

Imagery is available to download from <https://mediaselect.pa.media/>

For further information or to request a sample, please contact the Royal Collection Trust Press Office, press@rct.uk, +44 (0)20 7839 1377.