

The following items must be checked in on arrival and reclaimed at the end of your visit:

- Pen knives and knives with blades under 7.7cm (3")
- Scissors
- Kirpans (the Sikh article of faith) where the blade exceeds 7.7cm (3")
- Large bags
- Long umbrellas
- Alcohol
- Paints/aerosols.

The following items may not be brought into The Queen's Gallery, Buckingham Palace:

- Bicycles, folding bikes, roller-skates or skateboards.
- Pets or animals (excluding service animals)
- Drones

Please do not bring any of the following items as it is unlawful in the United Kingdom to have them in a public space:

- Knife with a blade over 7.7cm (3")
- Knife with a lockable blade (unless you have a reasonable excuse for having it with you)
- Butterfly knife
- Flick knife
- CS or pepper sprays

As The Queen's Gallery, Buckingham Palace is part of a working royal palace, security and opening arrangements may be subject to change at short notice.